There once was a man
Named Von the Believer
He wrote in this Book
and he smells like Wet Beaver

He was very un fit to be his teams wide Receiver
So he looked for the goddess until he could see her

This might be true
Believe at your leisure
There is a small chance
He just had a seizure

I don't know why but I was told that it's useful to the reader to have a Table of Content's near the beginning of a Book so take this with you and Be Not Afraid of Knot

Personally I feel it's better to have what is contained in the Book and what page it's on so I shall provide that here

"Statements may not reflect the

? So why I am writing this instead of typing well for me, typing is slow and it gives me too much time to think, as such any errors in this book are raw features at no extra charge.

I am Disorderian, I believe, but I could also just be an idiot or both anyways for you to understand how I got here and why I writing this I need to start from the beginning.

In the beginning all was Dark and the Great lady Eris was tired of stubbing her toe on the celestial futon. So she turned on the lights. FUCK! She screamed having been up all of the eternal Night her eyes were blinded. As she screamed she accidentally spit out her skittles creating all the stars in the sky and all the planets in the studio apartment. Naturally this was a surprise and she watched as our skittle cooled down and started to grow colonies of mold and macro organisms. She said uh, uh, nope and left it to Zeus to fix. Billions of years later and nothing got fixed.

One day during a party she was unceremoniously not invited to, she tossed a solid gold apple through the window with "to the prettiest one" written on it. Some girls argued over who it was for and decided to consult, bribe, and entice a magic skittle. Eris stole a holder, from the fridge during all this commotion, and ate it sans bun on her way home, our skittle had away, and the rest is mythology.

The Boxing Jack Con 65 YOID 3189

Twas one delightfull Sunny Night with Kights Lawn and Tellyvison hanging out with Others That they did invite Von Van Von.

As The Lawn and TV debated on what to get to eat betteen The King of heart disease and The Jack of Boxes Von did make the wrong choice to denonck The King of No Land.

Things felt off as we pulled into The Jack of Boxes's Mess hall. Twas a line longer then 10
Horse drawn carriages that seemed very percular.
This line was flowing backwards. As Von spoke to the man on Shetland pony in front of him

"So long line eh?" asked Von, without a ^{missing} beat
The pony responded "Tis the only line I've ever Known, I inherited this line, my father spent his whole life here as did his father before him."

I was about then that we pulled up to the speaker of the box Lawn did order a sandwich a ^{spicy} Cola and Rings of Onion while The TV got curly potatoes and regular Cola with thier sandwiches
Von did order a gallon of Cola with Ice.

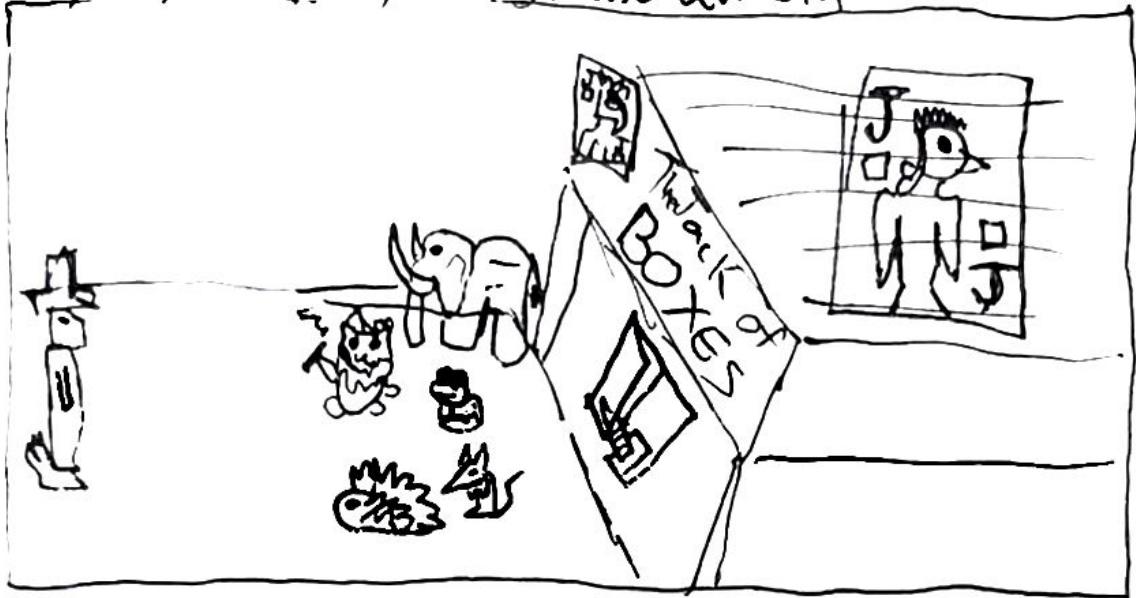

The lawn did show some concern a we waited an entire episode in line, perhaps we should not have disrespected The King of No land. The King did stare us down his food coffers a plenty and His dining hall barren.

The next day we made it to the front of the line, did pay the Fee for feed, and did get sent back to the back of the line to collect our food.

A Food Dash messenger did steal our spot, hope off his Arabian Horse and force his way into the unlocked Doors of the Jacks inner sanctum.

A battle between the Five Guardians of Jack, and The Dashenger did commence. The Guardians named; Koala, Rat, Porcupine, a Frog, and an Elephant

After about 2mins The Dashenger did retreat and The Koala did bring us half our order "our Regular Cola?" The Koala did run in and Back again "our sauce?" Once again in and back. Both orders and our sauce completed We did discover all colas and no Spicy Cola. Not wanting to risk a time loop we did leave wanting to fight everything but running late for Hangout time. As we left we saw The Dashenger return, unable to stick around we did miss the Dash vs Jack part two "War of No Land"

Grabbing liquor and beer we went on to hang with A Lion for a bit before returning to our Kingdoms

The lawn that Drives
The TV that
Rides shotgun
And The Von that should never make eating suggestions

1 The higher Council

a. The highest authority in the Rock Creek cabal is Just some Guy. I can't remember his name but he is the person your friends invite with them when you all hangout and you don't really know him. This person may run the organization until we discover his/her Identity. Upon discovery they cease to be Just some guy and are no longer in charge. This lesson teaches us the the one in charge is rarely known and Secret identities can hold a lot of power Against us.

b. Avatars of Disorder are the embodiment of the lady Eris, Chaos running in their very Veins. They are allowed to do what they want because, let's be honest, are you gonna tell them what to do? Yeah I didn't think so. Avatars don't need to be appointed because you already know they are.

b.5 Sratava of Redrosid are just like Avatars but backwards every thing they do is discarded but seems to be normal based on results and how the environment reacts to their Shenanigans. They do what they want because you told them what to do. Sratava can be suspected but never appointed because you are never sure they are.

Avatars and Sratava may switch Ranks I don't quite understand how that works tho

This is an official Document number for the Rock Creek Cabal because I hate explaining things here is a quick breakdown.

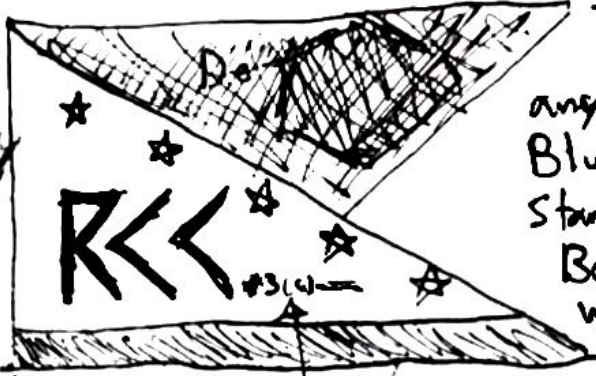

The two circles in the middle represent what part and what for section of the Chart the Document was written for. When conflicting Documents exist the one with the most recent date is correct. It is the opinion of the Rock Creek Cabal that Handwritten Documents are preferred but requiring everything to be handwritten, is a pain in the ass. (Handwriting your own font can be fun)

"Every Call Center Representative has an expiration Date, mine was 4 Months" - Tellyvisons

Entered in today! the official flag and Seal of The Rock Creek Cabal

↓ Pocket optional

Top triangle can be any shade of black or Bluedenim

Stars are Redish

Bottom triangle white with unmatching denim Strip

Letters in black Hand drawn in Sharpie or Similar

Forget to reverse letters for stamp so that is also ok to do because I dont want to remake it.

Flags must be dated (expiration date optional)

* Seal may include 5 of any one symbol

This one has dots!

This one had stars.

Didn't get that far here!

* Drawing Pentagon To hand for Gnak - Gnak

The official seal is a Lopsided pentagon with RCC in black, a black border, and some representation of the 3in2 chest. seal can be stickers or hand carved. If hand carved seal must be dated Size can range from 1/4 inch to 8inch. If digital seal must be drawn in real life scanned in and Named The date in "71cfn 3189" style png preferred.

Each person makes thier own seal that serves as a fingerprint. Seals and flags have no purpose other then "because we could" use as wanted.

* Hot Tip! hand draw your own seal and print as many as can fit on a page, cut with sissors, and glue stickem to your Documents!

The Enlightenment of Von Van Von

The day was 14 in the season of Discord 3187. I was hanging out with some friends. Everyone else was drinking the regular while Sir Lucy and I drank everclear (don't recommend) After all had left for the day I was stuck to stay awake all night in a state of Paranoia brought on by my inebriation and statements made by Sir Lucy.

The night made barable by a miniature Mt lion matching my energy. I did Grab my teeth in a fit of psychosis, and say "Nothing but pain is stopping me from removing my teeth. Pain is just a signal in my brain stopping me from ~~being~~ doing things that might harm me. I do not want to remove my teeth, but It is within my power to do so."

I then removed my hand from my teeth and balled it into a fist

"I can squeeze my fist way harder than my Mind allows, my muscles can do more than I think. I add more pressure yet I can still squeeze harder. There is nothing stopping me other than my own Will from Squeezing to hard!!"

With a popping sound my pinky dislocated and my Knuckles ripped the skin.

"...fuck... I did not mean to do that"

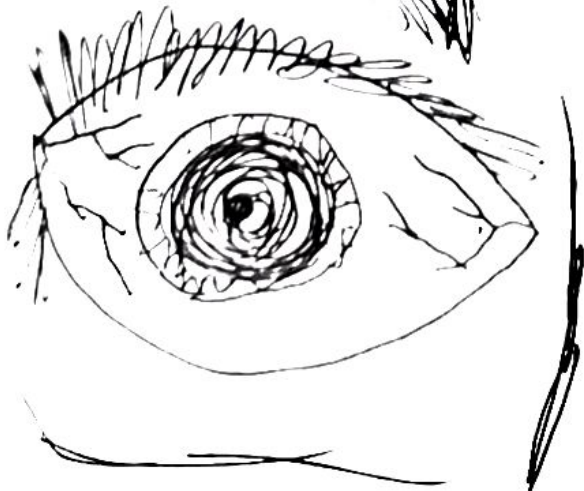

I then began to vividly hear people breaking in. This did not actually happen, but I was a bit far gone. The sound of a Patio Door opening did help. for I knew a stick was preventing it from being opened.

I looked at a picture on the wall, then... It hit me all the color drained from the world, as if someone slowly turned down the saturation. We are animals. Driven by signals we have little control over. And we make for ourselves laws, Morals and little rules to be not savages of the naturally disorganized world. The goddess did say "Yeah that's pretty obvious, ^{you} should have figured that out sooner." ~~It was~~

The world became small. Every act of perceived Order was chaos. Every choice determined by The way things just fell together. To move against The current was impossible, to do so just the conspiracy on ourselves to believe in free will. The World, the universe, does what it wants and wants for nothing.

I saw everything Through the eye's of Gods until the sun came up, Sir Lucy went home, and my natural instincts pulled the blanket of Saturation back over my eyes to protect me from that which evolution has taught my mind to not believe

Ritual of Slop Art Rosa

A Discordias technique

A fun Game/Art project. It was the Great Sir Mary who taught me this one. you will need

- A blank sketch book of about 50 to 100 pages (you can do this on regular printer paper but it may get messy)
- A pen
- A sharpie or two

1. First actually attempt to draw something you probably can't especially with a pen

2. Fuck it up and stop, you may set on a playlist now.

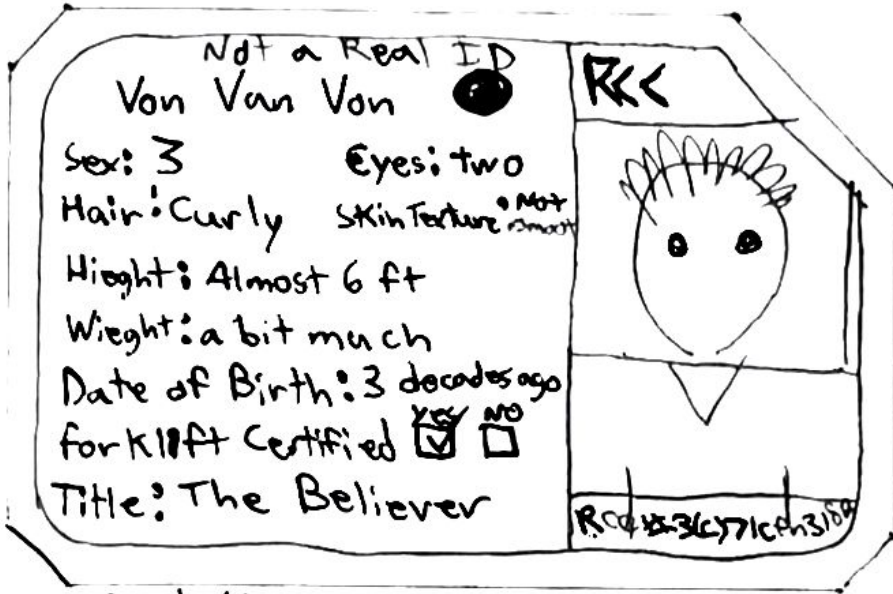

3. Throw the pen to the side and pick up the sharpie.

4. Use the sharpie to further mess up your drawing in a fit of manic rage

5. Using the rush proceed to go page to page making Quick art on each one powered by your manic episode. Random thought? DRAW IT! Song lyric hit right? DRAW IT! Location of the Mahogany chest of 3$ in 2$ bills? DRAW IT! 🤪🤪 fill up the sketch book noting when sharpies die and enjoy. There's bound to be some Good ones. More people More Mess!

THE BOOK OF 23RD STREET

The life and statments of Von Van Von

- 1-1. When Von was young and his afro did puff he went on a journey to find the meaning of life
2. Upon a Horse he did ride, supplied with everything not needed for the journey, but nessary for the comfort of life with no burdens. A Horse of Brass for a time of Class
3. Down the mountain did go Von easy but long he did thirst for water but his pack was Dry.
4. The lady did provide. As Von made it to the bottem of MT Crescent he did drink from the waters of Rock Creek.
5. The waters were not clean.
6. Making his way along the waters egde Von came across a brigde; he approtched As a beast landed in the middle of his path.
- 7 "Halt, Stranger." said Sir Arlington the pidgeon "I am the Gaurdian beast of this brigde, I shall not permit you to pass".
8. Von stared in disbelief, a talking pidgeon? After a bit he reacted "I have Drank the waters of this Sacred river, you shall not impead my path".
9. "That fucking Discusting" said Arlington, a bird That litterally shits in its bath water.

"Who should I let you pass"?

10. "Because I am on a noble quest to discover the meaning of life." replied Von.

11. Sir Arlington gave a chuckle "For real? Well I don't know if you'll find that in these lands but..." Sir Arlington thought well I'm not really doing anything "... How about I join you as your scribe, every quest needs some one to write it all down".

12. "Sure, I haven't thought of that". said Von.

13. And Sir Arlington did pick up the book and his pilot G-2 pen, and join Von on his journey.

2-1. Once across the bridge Von and Sir Arlington were met with another mountain

2. They tried for an hour to climb but it was too steep. So they went back and followed the river.

3. Following the river to the land of Maywood they crossed a different bridge into the park of Hill Burial Ground of a famous outlaw's brother and home of the Knives of Skate.

4. As they traversed the hills Von was approached and stopped by a soldier of indept as he turned to face her she said "Oh I thought you were someone else, can I search your bag?"

5. Slightly annoyed Von did give up his 4th

Amendment Right and allow his bag to be searched. because the soldier was Kinda Hot...

6. In a uniformed position of authority Kinda way
7. After assuring the Kings man ^(No) That his Ocarina was not an illegle herb smoke pipe Von and Sir Arlington were aloud on thier way.
8. After leaving the Hills of Park Von stopped at The town of Valera. He refilled his food supply and hedded on past the Generals treasury

3-1. Past the western part and Northern Bull yard where lays the Church of Poultry Von past a Profit at Seven hundred Eleven miles. The profit Stumbling did proclain:

2. "We cant make water, We have to go to mars"

3. Von stumbled for he had never exprience such eye opening Revalations. He wanted to ask the man more but Sir Arlington told him not to. It is bad luck to interrupt a profit in the middle of an episode.

4. They countinued on thier way to the golden arches of the Sterling trade route.

5. The sirens did call. Von was entrance and started to walk towards the golden arches.

6. "Stop" said sir Arlington "Plug your nose, you are being controlled by a nefarious beast."

7. Arlington wrenched Von back to reality away from the promise of salty beef and potato sticks in tomato vinegar.
 8. Getting back on his horse Von continued on down the 23rd trail.
- 4-1. An Old man aproched Von, pulling out a beautiful Mahogany chest.
2. "Take this chest..." he demanded "I have no need or use of it."
 3. Confused Von opened it up too find two 2$ bills. "What, Why"
 4. "No one on this damn street believes 2$ bills are real" said the man "so heres the deal, find a place that does believe and get change. All I ask in return is One dollar of it for me to buy a Cheese, rice, and bean tortia wrap."
 5. That was how Von obtained the Holy 3$ in 2$ Mahogany chest. Accepting this mission Von Strapped it to his horse.
 6. The site of this exchange the Englewood Taco Tavern is Deemed a holy site by Sir Arlington the Pidgeon.
 7. Shortly after Von stopped to rest. Waking up The next day the chest was gone.
 8. "who the hell got off with the chest, who would do this". cried Von

9. "It's definitely someone I'm sure" replied Sir Arlington checking over the bags "It's too big to misplace, and there's no way it got up and walked away."
10. Von shuddered angry. He swore on a nauty magazine that he would track down someone I'm sure and get back the holy chest 1 dollar in debt. That was how Von lost the Holy 3$ in 2$ bills Mahogany chest.

5. 1. Back to their original quest they reached a place that could answer the meaning of life.

2. The Great Library of Truman, A Huge repository of Knowledge, wisdom, and WIFI.

3. "We are here at last" sighed Von, basking in the view of this holy establishment.

4. They entered and studied for days until they came across an ancient and forgotten tome. the Book of Web stir Rick visionary.

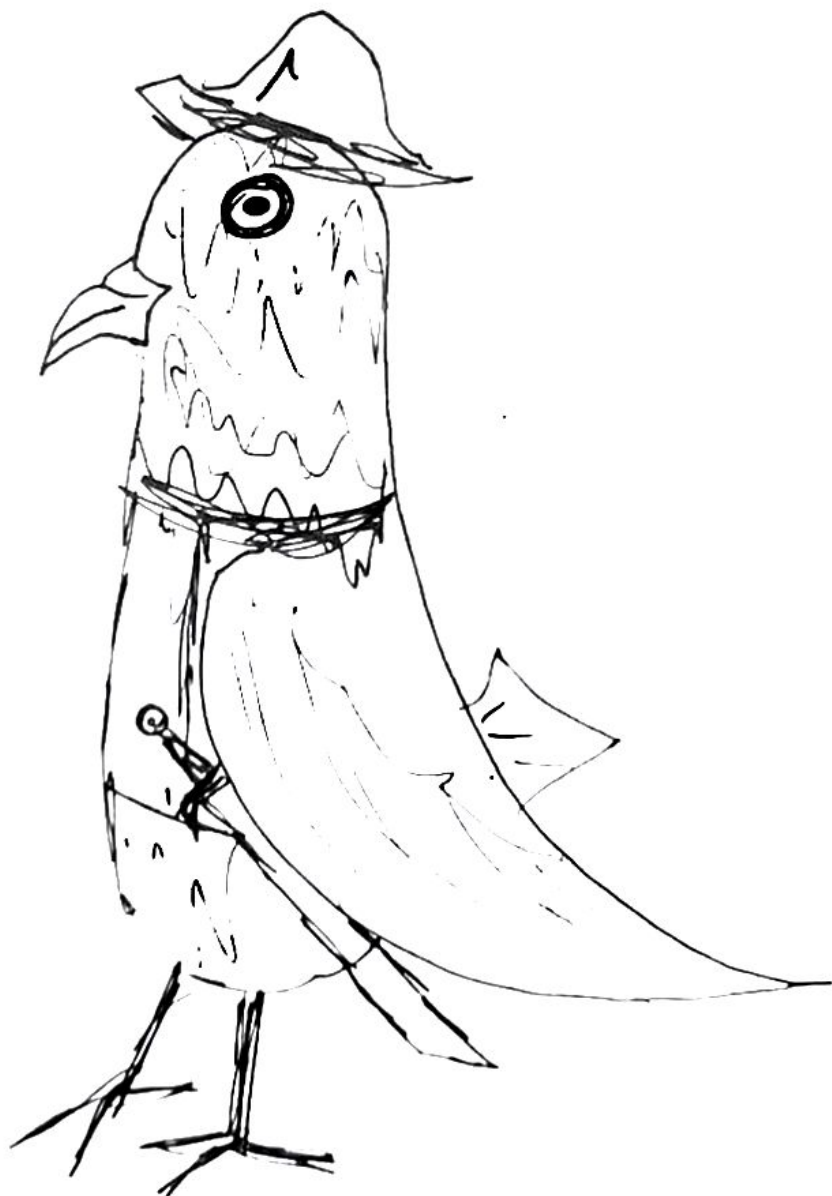

5. And The book did provide the meaning of life written in its old paparus pages

Life-noun

- a: the quality that distinguishes a vital and functional being from a dead body
- b: A principle of force that is considered to underlie the distinctive quality of animate beings
- c: An organismic state characterized by capacity for metabolism, growth, reaction to stimuli, and reproduction.

The Book of Greed

- 1-1. Once upon a time in a quaint neighborhood a spirit of innovation struck a man name Isacc.
2. Isacc was a farmer who was on hard times. The other farmers of his town were selling their product lower than his. He could not compete.
3. Every year he was left with surplus, this year was the worst of all.
4. But Isacc was resourceful, he had been using his old crop to make wines and other alcohols, and had saved enough money to buy a small building in town.
5. Isacc opened his bar, Isacc's Spirits "farm to cup experience".
6. Isacc had also created his very own charge style called IFS. (Incentivize Fast Service). By making it normal in his bar to IFS your server he was able to pay his workers less because of the added IFS.

7. It was strange at first but alot of people felt it was like gambling. Potentially you could make alot, and...

Incentivized Fast Service

Our workers rely on IFS
 So They will work faster.
 Your Appreciation is shown
 Ifs your server ^{when you?}

8. Gambling is addicting

9. There were concerns though. Some people would never Ifs and this made the servers mad. But they always blamed the customers.
10. Others would get a whole powertrip out of it microjudging the attitude and likability of the person Ifs ing based on their own internal test score
11. And Oddly younger attractive female servers pulled in better Ifs.
12. The Council of Elders saw fault. Without Ifs Isaac was paying so low it might be considered Slavery.
13. We cant just bann it to many people like it. But we can regulate it.
14. And so laws were formed To govern the use of Ifs
15. If a server should not make at least the regular lowest wage the Owner must pay the Difference to bring the server up to the lowest wage
16. If a server is to do a job unrelated to serving for 60 minutes or more During that time they are required To be payed regular lowest wage.
17. All Ifs must be tracked and reported to the tax collectors as earned wages.
18. Little to no resources shall go into enforcing any of This law except the section on taxes.

19. Isacc decided he would not regard these laws and instead find reasons to fire servers who brought it up.
20. We have too many servers I must let you go and still hire a replacement
21. Your performance is lacking I must let you go and hire someone with less skill
22. I had to cut your pay for the customers you served that left without paying. Because of this in letting you go I shouldn't have to pay security because my lowpayed servers wont put themselves in harms way.
23. Isacc revolutionized the Industry. Everyone was using Ifs to underpay thier workers. Some people didnt like it but thats just the way it is.
24. I order to change the system everyone would have to stop Ifsing but that would make them the Bad Guy
25. Our the servers whould have to all quit until the places are forced to pay a living wage. But most of them couldn't afford to quit.
26. Every year Ingrianed Ifs into the culture, making Isacc and other bussiness owners wealthy while also making it harder to end the practice
27. To be paid by two different People for The same Job is ?!

Rock creek Cabal Ordination

There are two ways to become Ordained in the Rock Creek Cabal;

• The first method is to Document a Unicorn Hunt in your local woods. Successful unicorn hunt is not necessary. Upon finishing the hunt you're to take its horn or fake its horn and Mount it to your forehead somehow.

Channeling this horn energy pull out an Index card and write a Demand for the 3$ in 2$ Mahogany chest. Take a picture of it and keep it in an envelope for you to forget and find later. Send the picture to your best friend, and meditate for 30 secs on a red pillow. Try to reach Enlightenment. If you don't, fake Enlightenment. Write about it, and make it public. Then you shall be deemed Ordained you have permission to write your Own Ordination paper work and sign it  (Make sure you get a unicorn hunting license if your area requires it).

• The Second Method is a lot harder so it's only for really serious and Committed peoples. You must print out a copy of The Certificate of Ordination in this Book and fill it in with your name. Then you shall be ordained by

How To Make Bad Potato Soup

Take your potatoes and clean peel and cut them into $\frac{3}{4}$ inch pieces.

In a pot bring water to a boil and put the potatoes in. (Water should cover potatoes)

After potatoes are soft but still hold together take half of them and mash them into a paste

On medium heat add the mashed potatoes and realize you forgot to buy milk, and the condensed milk has gone bad, so in a panic add sweet cream coffee creamer until potato mash is covered. add in the unmashed potatoes and stir gently.

Add Salt and Greek Seasoning to taste, realize you fucked up and it's too sweet.

Add Water till it's too thin and still too sweet right about now the dish should be Bad but to make it worse add broth to taste

Realized that it is still too thin and let Von put flour in it. this will thicken it a little but will create balls of flour cooked on the outside and powdery on the inside like a depressing Dry ravioli.

Examine your inedible mess and force yourself and Von to eat it because you don't want to waste it and no one else in the house wants to eat your war crime potato soup.

Cry.

"Recipe is approximate, nothing can recreate the horror."

How to Hogwash

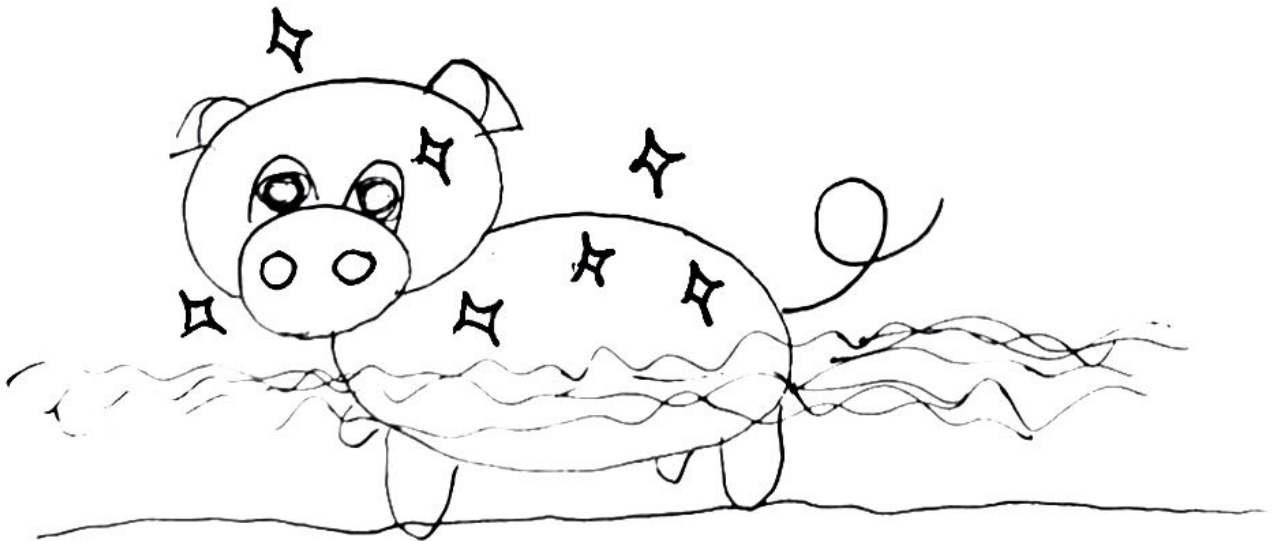

Contrary to popular beliefs Pigs are naturally Clean and don't often require washing.

Just throwing your pig in a tub and turning the water on might get you one nasty pissed off hog however. I recomend just water in a sizable pool that the pig can walk into and out of at its own liesure.

A damp soft cloth can be used to clean around the hogs eyes and ears. Avoid using soap and cleaner that will sting or irritate the pig.

Some pigs will refuse a soft brush while others enjoy being pampered its important to know what your pig likes and dislikes.

Some pigs like showers some dont. be Warned.

WORKING AT THE

HOGWASH!

The Book of electric feels

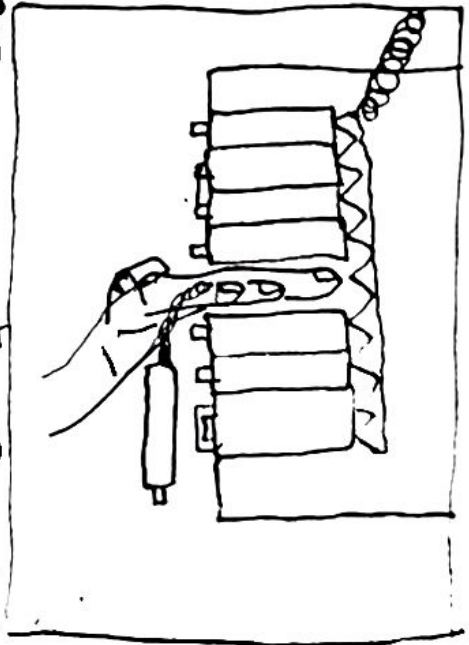

Once upon a Lightning Rod.

entry by Von

1-1 A curiosity of my life is I appear to attract electricity more than the common person. Most of the examples I will give here are just stupidity and bad luck with two notable exceptions.

2. My first example is perhaps common but shall be noted anyways. Static shock, carpets and cars in winter and shocks from drinking water from the water fountains in school growing up. This statement is a pretty common thing so no superstitions here.

3. The next major event was an act of Idiocy. And is what caused the most damage. When using the stove and microwave at the same time. Every time the breaker would flip. Instead of moving the microwave to a different outlet I would go downstairs and flip the breaker back. I got so used to this that I stopped turning on the light in the basement when I went to the breakers. This was my downfall. The last time I went to flip the breaker, there was no breaker. Instead of tripping the breaker had fallen out. With muscle memory in the dark I reached in didn't touch the breaker on top or bottom and made contact with the main line. Time stood still, I felt nothing, I glitched and woke up on the ground the entire house dark. Had the main not flipped I'm sure I'd be dead.

4. I've always felt a little off since that event. My pain tolerance on my left side has been higher than my right. And I stopped having a regular sleep schedule. Being in a state of combat sleep and some days not sleeping at all.

5. The next event was a point blank lightning strike. I was bringing in carts at the hardware store I worked at. It was a slow closing shift and just me and one other person. As I was getting the last cart I paused... I could feel something coming. My mouth tasted sweet and then BOOM. Lightning struck the pole three feet from me. The image was burned into my eyes. I casually walked inside to a dark unlit store and announced to my coworker. "lightning struck the pole right in front of me." We then closed the store early for the first and last time as there was less than 2 hours left.

It took over a week for me to stop seeing the lightning whenever I closed my eyes.

6. The fourth event is stupidity related. A small metal conduit was hanging in a barn. This was fixed by an electrician and I thought they just left it hanging in my effort to remove it I accidentally slipped a pinky into the open end. Turns up the electrician ran a new line and failed to cap the old line. I was stuck until the power went out and in a daze I walked over to the light switch and flicked it off. This entire time a coworker was yelling at me and trying to get me to sit down. After I finally did he ran and got help. the lights and electricity were properly fixed after that and this story had to be told to me because I still don't remember flipping the lights ~~on~~ or my coworker yelling at me to stop and sit down. It was about now that my friends started joking about that's how I'll die.

7. One day while hanging with a friend I decided to go to the gas station for snacks. After leaving the gas station it started to rain very hard. While driving I felt the feel and tasted sweetness again. I braced myself as lightning struck the pole right next to my car causing it to shake violently. All the lights on the dash glowed brighter for a second and then went a little bit less bright than was normal. I felt nothing and was not blinded this time, and my car blew a piston shortly after. Probably not related but I thought I'd note that anyway.

8. The last event of note would be while I was working. I set my hand on a shelf at work during a day with a heavy storm. I got a slight shock and then lightning hit a transformer outside and the power went out. Not much else about this event.

~~~~~ Finished ~~~~~

Left on Right

Lets get one thing straight I don't care to much for politics. I know what is right and wrong, and I know what is none of my bussiness. Both the far left and far right want to take away your Individual liberties for the liberties of a few or their chosen people. This is perhaps The biggest scam on the planet, that your voted for messiah will change your world for the better. Many chosen leaders later and the world goes on. Look at everyone you know, would you divided them into just two groups? I wouldn't. Yet it is Okay to only really have 2 options for politics.

In Order to function as a society we give up certain liberties we care for that the majority might not care about. Our head leaders don't make these choices a bigger group of representatives do. This bigger group is unknown by most who only care about who gets to sit on the Throne. One person does not represent us, and they never will. Their main Job is to be the fall guy and figurehead to blame whenever something goes wrong. While this happens the lesser known can go about collecting money from the Individuals with money to spare, passing laws that benefit them and not so much you.

Both sides have become wrathfull and so ph-detrined that it is dangerous to not pick a side. For some it is worse to sit on the fence then to claim the oppisite side. To vote for no one is a wasted and stolen Vote even if you hold no opinion.

Meetings need not follow agendas and agendas need not be made. The above is for people who want structure and can be Disregarded or regarded as needed. Meetings are typically never planned.

Recipe for Ant Killer

1 cup Sugar

1 cup Warm water

1 tablespoon Borax Deter

Dissolve the Sugar into the water in a mason Jar and add 1 TB of Borax (found with detergent in most cleaning aisles).

Place bottle caps full of this mixture in places out of the way where you have seen ants (window sills). At first they will go crazy and storm the area. Keep refilling until they stop showing up.

Serious Business

Serious Business is a minimal game played by two or more people. Players sit at a table silently and take turns writing on a sheet of paper. The goal being to try really hard to be serious and not react to what the person has drawn or written. For adults you can take shots if you break or also have the Drawer take a shot if the other fails to laugh. The players who laugh 5 times are out until one player is left this is the winner but care should be taken. This person may be a cabbage or Greyface. The other players/gatherers/party goers must now take turns saying funny or ridiculous things to get ~~them~~ to break. This is done to prevent the serious from being permanent. (Make/add/Destroy rules as needed.)

NEWSLETTER ?!

for immediate release. It has come to our attention that Grass is an invasive species. As such Lawn Clippings are not to be picked up but left in the yard as a sign to the Grass that they will be taken care of the same way. For those that don't mow the lawn cut a single blade of grass to threaten this invasive greenery every now and then.

The OM of Time

One of the Missions of the MIA is the Distributions of and Disposal of time marked Items. A time marked Item is an artifact that was made by Modern technology outside of modern time. Grok is responsible for most of these artifacts because he was stabbed by the Sacred Stussy as a child he may have also invented the cool S but its hard to be sure.

To stabilize the timeline Grok was brought to our time and sometimes he makes one sent back to ~~other~~ times. This is not always determined by time item continuity how ever and has resulted in future tech ~~being sent back~~ such as watches bolts and other Items being sent back to inappropriate times. The MIAs job is to discredit and disrupt findings by modern day archeologists that appear to find these objects.

Examples include a sparkplug, copper plumbing, toys of planes and Dinos, and power tools sent to ~~egypt~~ 2 years before the pyramids were built. The hard part about determining when to discredit these findings is that some of them haven't been made to be sent back yet so we cant always be sure until grok makes it. And some items grok makes after watching Documentaries featuring them.

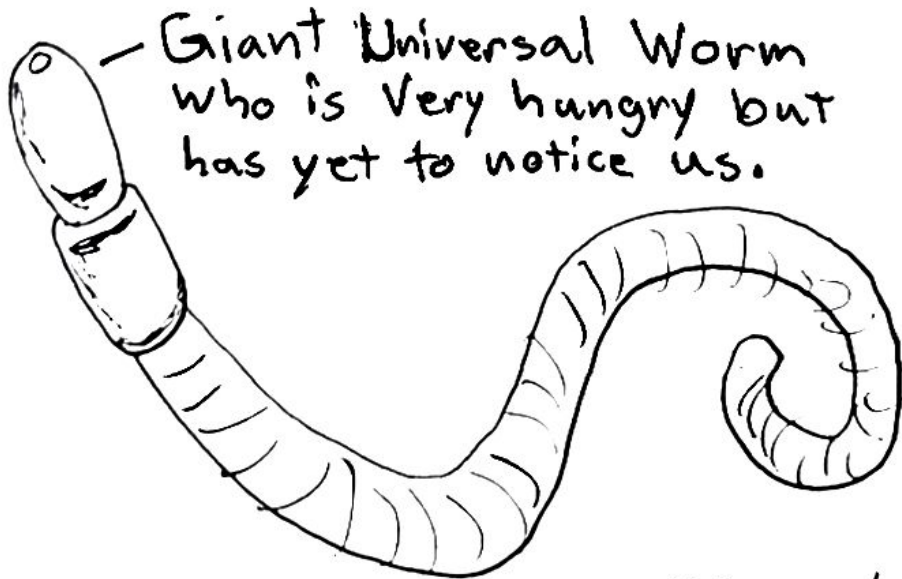

Grok is occasionally sent to random times as well and has been confirmed as multiple people in history male and female. He may also be Jesus but more Investigation is required. Grok also does not Die or age. The leading theory being that he has never been around on the Day the reaper is looking for him.

The Time Traveling Pigeon Brigade

Rigorously trained by Sir Arlington himself, the Time traveling Pigeon Brigade is an elite group of 421 pigeons. Their job includes fixing the past when Grok messes up or another timetraveler goes back to change something. The brigade has to be pigeons because they are uniquely immune from being timeline wiped. No matter what you change Statue shitting birds will always exist.

This group was created when Grok accidentally created Atheism in the past on one of his visits. When he came back humans had evolved past the need for physical bodies and had moved ~~on~~ <sup>on</sup> from this earth. Surprisingly Grok found Sir Arlington and was able to go back and reverse his actions. This is how Grok invented Killing your past self and somehow still existing. The Pigeon Brigade was established shortly after.

The TTPB patrols various times prone to tampering.

About US

The Other Floaters Cabal worships the floaty things in the eyes as Holy messages of Eris and interprets them for the common folk.

The words of the Goddess are with us in the eyes, as such we have little need for our own Holy Book as the floaters are constantly changing.

One day Eris will come back to fix our eyesight and steal our burdens so that we may dine at the picnic table, and bath in the Holy child sized pool.

Gatherings are nonformal affairs with friends, beer, and Burgers and every Man Woman and Child on this earth is an Other floaters Cabal Pope.

The Afterlife

We at the Rock Creek Cabal Do Not believe in a specific Heaven or Hell but believe that each person decides that for themselves. As such the following is Von the believers version of Heaven and Hell

In Hell one can redeem oneself. To do so you must plead your case for redemption.

Hell is a landscape of foot Deep pools of Manure scattered among damaged books too moldy and water damaged to read. The Temp. changes between Too Hot, Too cold, and your Ideal Temp randomly. When its too cold Ice misquitoses buzz around near your ears reminding you of every chinge moment of you life. When its too Hot you sweat vodka and must eat glass to hydrate. When the temp is just right you must deal with door to door missonarys of cult religions and door to door salesman of products you dont want. If you happen to be eating during this time a waiter brings the bill and you have just enough to pay the bill, but not enough to tip.

While in Hell you are given a file. In this file you will carry various Documents and papers from different Offices, these are your casework. Each document is connected so losing or Damaging One means starting over. Each office is run like a DMV. The amount of Offices is equal to everytime you have every wronged someone. Upon successful document collection you will feel remorse and your soul will forgive you the Judge will then roll a D100 that you must call correctly or start the process over. If at any point in time you wish to burn in eternal Damnation a similar process is done for every Good thing you've done.

You may choose to go to purgatory which will start you over on another world during its equivalent of Caveman era. This is how humans spread to other planets.

You may also choose to become an angel of the Third hell serdian we dont know what this does but it is diffinently not good.

In Heaven the air smells lightly of Old or new books with a hint of Cream soda. The landscape is a vast garden containing all plants and animals to ever exist. You are given an impossible to lose Keyring this Keyring can open a door to any time/place/event you wish to see or expirience.

You are allowed to ask one free question to your god of choice that will be answered in a way you can understand. If you have more you are given the tools to search for the answers yourself. You can also participate in helping Others cases in hell. If you choose to do say the persons paperwork and file will never be lost or damaged and the dice roll will be thier number. To have a person in Heaven Voice thier concern on you case means that despite your flaws, your impact on this persons life warrants you Mercy in the eyes of all that is good.

Early during your visit to hell or heaven you may be revived on earth in these cases your memories of heaven and/or hell will be wiped

Carrying a Get out of Jail Free card at your time of passing will also skip the Dice roll requirment.

You may choose to go through the hell process in Someone elses place and carry thier burdens, thier Soul will be immediatly removed and purified. Doing this a certain amount of times depending on your motives will allow you to create your own Universes.

Rock Creek Cabal Wedding

(a Vague Outline)

Opening:

- Guests gather in a park or other outdoor location (Quirky or funny Venues also allowed) and sit according to which of the ones getting married they believe would win in a fight.

- Procession of the wedding party is to be led by something ridiculous (Jester, clown, Drone, RC car) to music of the married ones choosing.

- With both parties settled The pope Then speaks "We have organized here today to ~~bring~~ <sup>bring</sup> together

Eris Smoke • Someone dressed as Eris then throws the Golden Apple and runs out of the gathering. The Bride or Bride equivalent picks up the apple.

Vows • Vows and humorous stories are now shared and Both parties make their I DO's.

Rings • Rings are exchanged (unconventional Rings encouraged) At this time guest add their blessings

Confusion • A man in "Rock Creek Cabal uniform makes Sacrament a random mix of Drinks according to the wedding parties demands and the Eristic Elixir is passed around to the guests. Cheers & speeches

Papers • Necessary papers are signed and the bride for Greiface Says "to the prettiest one" or "Kallisti" and throws the Golden apple into the Ground. The person who gets the apple is responsible for the Trojan War

- Eris and the pope argue about whether marriage unplanned is a state or religious affair.

Exits • Guest are encouraged to leave in random Directions at different times

After • After party optional Bride and Groom leave in a just married wheelbarrow.

Invoking and Emboking Eris

Eris will show up if she feels like it. Therefore as has been proven the best way to summon her or her energy, is to not invite her in the first place. Hail Eris!!!! Do not try to surround yourself with disorder, Instead See the disorder that is already there.

Angsty teen Phase

Sitting alone in any place is one of the saddest things I've ever done.

I don't know how people can do it. In a small place of seclusion, surrounded by people and not being able to drink my bad thoughts away is practically torture.

How I wish I could drink to get rid of these petty notions plaguing my mind.

The one thing that brings me joy in this world is also what will be my demise. Words appearing on paper due to the ability of ink and graphite.

Fear that what I write in secret will be out in the open and every flaw that

I worked so hard to keep away from everyone but my pen and paper will be known. I guess my ability to twist words and make the most foul thing sound amazing is a gift from my father. My mother can write but it seems to lack the ability to make people truly feel, deep, hidden feelings.

This ability is often a curse, one that can't be shared. A sentence to being alone, or so fucked up that people wish to be away from you. The ability to write in a beautiful fashion is what helps us keep our emotions in, until we finally break down from the pressure of our feelings. The only time we let our emotions free, other than breaking down, is when we write. We force every feeling into our hands, down the writing utensil of our choice and onto our canvas. Whatever that canvas may be. Some may be sickened by the style written on paper or carved into our flesh. These are the ones that don't have a gift of living behind a perfectly hidden mask. They don't understand that writing is our only escape, nothing else works. Not crying, talking, drinking, drugs... Nothing. If they understood them there would be no problems. No sickening looks, all would be right. But that's what gives us this unspeakable way with words. Without it, and with understanding, we would die. Would no one name this ability of sculpting words? I hope we never have to find out. ~~Even if it means~~ being understood our entire lives.

5 Meditation Revelations

Sir Mary + von Van von

1. Donut Holes ARE NOT Donut Holes. They are fried Dough Balls.

This is a Donut Mole

OK This is a Glazed Dough Ball

You Don't even cut them out all the time, some Donuts are made with the hole already by just shaping the Dough into Donut Shape.

2. One of my teachers in highschool was incredible. He orgnized the Classroom organicy with everyone facing each other in a circle as equals. I learned the most from that class while doing the bare minimum and sleeping through my other classes. He taught me critical thinking and inspired me to write. Instead of punishing students who failed a project with a bad grade he let us learn from our mistakes, and gave us feedback on how to be better and how to be individuals. He had alot of people from the higher ups sit in on the class, and got a promotion to an administrator position. This seemed positive at the time but as an adult I now realize the truth. He was not promoted, He was taken out of a teaching position. He was to good to be fired but his ways were too unorthadox and not the status quo of making obedient test takers to up the data used to determine how good a school is. The District stole this great teacher from the Students. He tore apart my first story and gave Great feedback as well which I desprittly needed

3. After deleting my social medias in a Manic episode I am happier. Its another form of Prison and I feel free. No more collecting friends ill never talk to in an Echo Chamber of political news. I can Just Keep in touch with my actual hangout friends. I recomend anyone who feels anxiety online and find thier time wasted scrolling feeds limit themselves on it. You need not Delete everything in a manic rage, but try little steps to find what works for you.

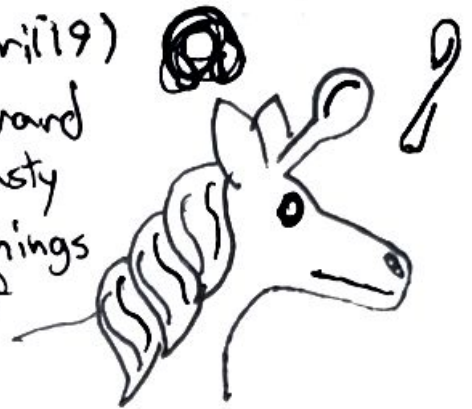

4. Society has devolped to the point where almost anyone can cook with easy to follow directions and a wide variety of ingrediants. (In Most places). However society has also devolped to a point where most people dont need to cook, with fast food and pre-packaged Microwaved foods. This is a dangerous lifestyle, and has become normalized. Fuck the women cooking bullshit aside, everyone should be able to cook the fact that this is not required to learn in school in most places is abusing the future of the human race. How many people would die or go malnarishted if disaster struck and the microwave didn't work. This along with hunting/gathering/fire starting and other survival SKills are the only way we can ease potential Disasters if the food industry crashed.

5. Empty Meditation. Meditation without thought. Completely clearing the mind refreshes ones Mindset and helps Keep outside influence from Paiering a future action.

The Wheel of Beats

To get a full set of Discardian-fuda
Print one set normal and one set inverted color. for a total of 50 cards
25 positive
25 negative

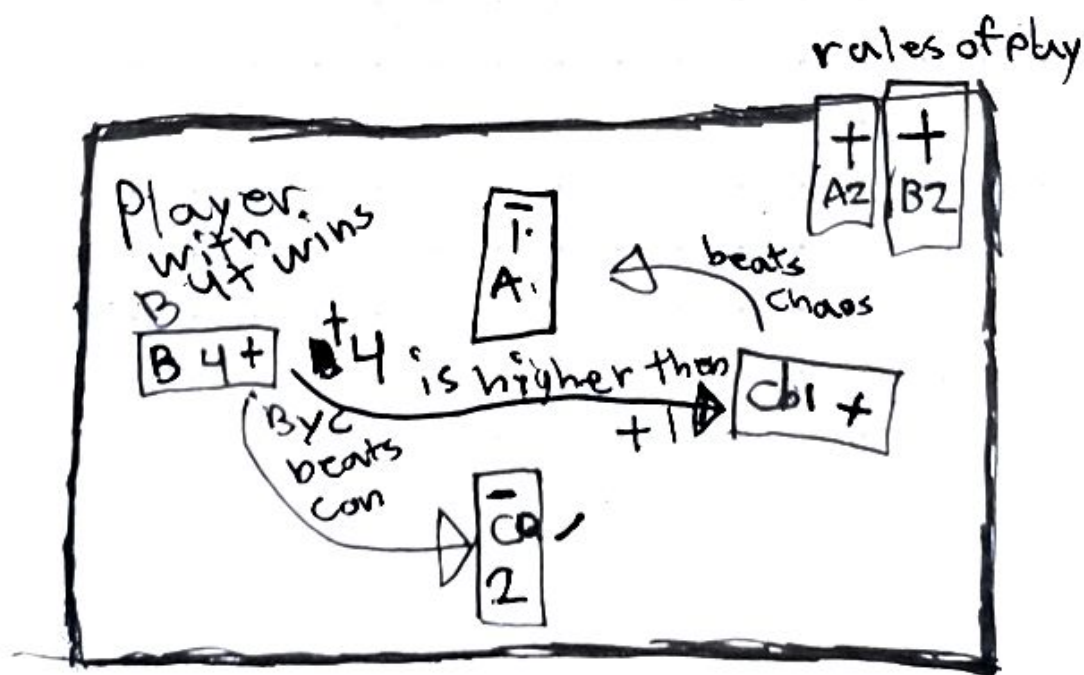

Shuffle Deck

Players Draw Three cards then remove 2 cards from the bottom of the Deck These two cards insert rules of play

- If the cards are both positive
The game goes on as normal
- If the cards are both negative
The wheel of beats is reversed
- If one card is positive and the other is negative cards in sets that beat each other instead Draw.

People play their chosen card from their hand face down. after all players have chosen a card the cards are flipped and revealed. The wheel of beats is consulted to determine what cards are defeated automatically, this happens all at once so it is possible to have everyone lose at this stage. If any cards remain the highest number wins. In a Draw Those players flip a coin to determine the winner losers take 0 points and the winner takes 1 point. The game continues until the cards are gone or someone gets 5 points, you decide. If total mutual destruction happens and all players cards are destroyed the first person to say "Bunker" wins that round. If playing with shots is your flavor, losers Drink. saying "Bunker" when its not applied in a TMD situation cause that person to lose the round and their card to be removed before The Wheel of beats takes effect. If more then one person says "Bunker" at the same time they must play another side game of the wheel of beats to determine the Winner of that round. rules can be changed to suit the needs of the game but must be Determined before starting.

+14 | -14

Double Deck 1 Dealer
It needed 1 to 5 players

+14/-14 is Much like black Jack.

Dealer Draws and Keeps one card face down Negative numbers are subtracted. Positives are added. Bust is at 15 and -15, and -14 and 14 are auto wins Dealer loses Draw, and must Stay at 12. Even if a negative number or positive number could bring you ~~back~~ back from a bust Hitting 15/-15 or Higher/Lower is automatic with no saves. Splits aloud both +5/+5 -5/-5 and -5/+5 positive and negative are not taken into account when splitting. If you manage to get a full set 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 (again +/- Does matter)
You get a Holy exception 15 and beat 14/-14 automatically.

Discordian Fuda Poker 2 to 5 or More

Rank Low to High

1 Highest Cards Value -5 to +5

One Pair ++, Decide at the beginning if
One Pair -+ - or + are higher or lower
One Pair --

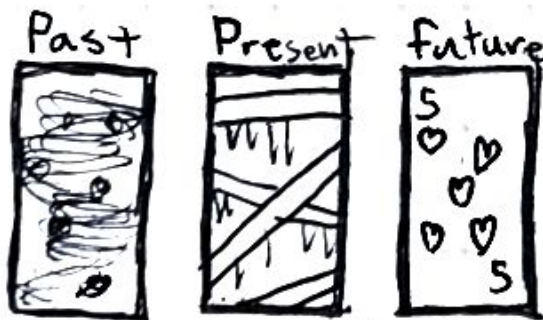

Three of a Kind + and - Dont matter

Orderly Straight - Straights <sup>5 cards</sup> in order with highest last card Determining the better straight Disorderly Straight - Straights Disregarding positives and negatives

Shitty Shevades Bingo <sup>3 to 5</sup> players

Cards are Divided into positives and negatives. players take turns Drawing from the positive Deck Keeping the card out of View they must now act out the card while the players look at the spread out negatives. First player to guess right gets the negative card and the positive card is discarded. Draws are handled by Rock Paper Scissors. First person to 5 cards wins and yells bingo. Shots for losers each round if playing with shots. Use of fingers for numbers, Sign language, and Spoken voice is forbidden. Violators cant Guess next round.

Fortune Telling

Have the fortune teller Shuffle the Deck and Draw three cards out face down, flip The cards up Past to future, using "Oh no...", "thats Interesting", and "I Know it" as appropriate. Positive cards are read emotionally and Interperated in the heat of the moment. Negative cards are read Logically and taken literally with no interperation. If you read someone with a -3 in 2$ card (The aftermath 3) Get suspicious of them and alert your local MIA. If They get it in the future put them on the MIA watchlist. If they draw it in the past alert the Time Traviling pigeon Brigade.

Orderly Flush - 5 cards of the same set positive and negative matter (+ or - low/high)
 Disorderly Flush 5 cards + or - not regarded

4 of a Kind + + + +

 Alt Rule use the Will of beats to see ~~which~~ which set wins
 If neither Both players win

5 of a Kind is called a season - and + the positives and negatives when more than one player has five of a kind.

Two Versions

- Players have 3 cards and 2 are ~~shared~~ in everyones hands
- Each player has his own hand
 The Version played is determined by vote

Plays turn flow chart

Pot grows with each turn, Bets must be made each turn until one cannot bet and must play the cards. after 5 rounds of this chart Players play the Betting game and take turns trying to manipulate the others into folding or betting more. without money use feathers without feathers use shots up to 5 shots.
